BANQUET TO ECCLES Threat to Reconsider Election MINERS SMOKED OUT of Senator Kearns.

The members of the Kearns Benevolent and Protective association may ave to divide up their promised good things with some outsiders. The esday afternoon and described in The Herald yesterday will be permitted have everything its own way. Eph Homer of Utah is one of the leaders of the opposition. Mr. Homer nounced yesterday that unless the eighteen Republicans who voted for Searns, in addition to the lucky nineteen who nominated him, got part of the patronage he would move to reconsider the vote by which Kearns was lected. This club will be held over the heads of the members of the asso-

S. W. Eccles, the retiring traffic man-oger of the Oregon Short Line, was wined and dired by his intimate friends and susiness associates at the Alta club last day. The Kearnsites freely admitted that they had held a caucus and that they were going to cut the patronage up to suit themselves. The chief development of the date was in relation to the consulship. A rumor gained aking, was the only guest of the even-

Nephi Morris doesn't want much. He merely wishes to have Arthur used in the furnishings of the Nephi will and or not is a wide-open question, so open, in fact, that Nephi is liable to fall into it and be drowned.

The push gives it out cold that nobody is going to get anything until all of its wants are supplied. That is, if Tom keeps his promises. The society is wondering hard whether Tom is going to do this same or not. The senator has hardly had time to accomplish anything yet, but McMillan was tossed in the air on the railroad auditorship and, if the report is true, Kelly has been shoved hard by the appointment of a Washington man as private secretary. With these things staring them in the face, the nineteen seem to have some grounds for doing a lot of profane thinking.

There was an amusing incident at the door of the house cloak room yesterday afternoon. Homer came up and found the entrance locked. He at once gave the alarm of the Kearns Benevolent and Protective association, three raps and a kick. He was smiling over his joke when the door was flung open by nobody but John T. Axton. And John appreciated the humor

A Sanpeter who was in town yesterday said a lot of the boys down his ray bet all their money on Kearns and won out big. When asked where they got the tip they said it was easy. "We only waited to see how Bench and Christensen voted." said one. "Then we knew who the church candidate was and we bet on that man. How's that for logic of the unanswerable

The gentlemen say they will put in an exchange here that will give the people the best service they ever heard of at about $24 a year to residences and $36 to business houses and if they meet with the encouragement they expect the work of construction will soon be under way. They are out for business and come prepared to demonstrate their ability to do all that they

They stated last evening that if they receive sufficient local encourage ment they will petition the city council for a franchise at once. It will be remembered that the new Home company has a franchise petition pending in the council and this third project will add to the interest of the situation.

Speaker Glassman Still Trying to Regulate Plural Marriage.

Speaker Glasmann does not despair of getting some kind of bill through n the plural marriage question, in spite of the adverse report by the judici-ry committee on his original bill.
